

A true Copy of HIS MAIESTIES
LETTER

To the late sitting Generall Assembly
OF
SCOTLAND:

Concerning
A Reformation
OF THE KIRK

In that KINGDOME.

---

L O N D O N,
Printed by L. Norton and J. Field for A. C.

August, 29. 1642.

A true Copy of

H 12

MAJESTIES

LETTER

To the late sitting

General Assembly

OF

SCOTLAND:

Concerning

A Reformation

OF THE KIRK

In that Kingdom.

LONDON.

Printed by L. Waver and J. Field for A. C.

August 20. 1642.

A True
COPY

HIS MAJESTIES
LETTER

The Generall Assembly
of SCOTLAND.

CHARLES R

Ruffy and Welbeloved, We greet you well, in the midst of Our great and weightie Affairs of Our other Kingdoms, which God Almighty (who is privie to our intentions, and in whom We trust) will in his own time bring to a wished and peacable condition; We are not unmindfull of that duty which

We

A true Copy of

HIS

MAJESTIES

LETTER

To the Honorable

General Assembly

OF SCOTLAND:

Concerning

A Reformation

OF THE KIRK

IN THE KINGDOM OF SCOTLAND.

Printed by L. Watson and J. Todd for A. D.

August 20. 1746.

A True
COPY
 OF
HIS MAJESTIES
LETTER

To
 The Generall Assembly

of SCOTLAND.

CHARLES

R.

Thus Rusty and Welbeloved, We greet you well, in the midst of Our great and weightie Affairs of Our other Kingdoms,
 which God Almighty (who
 is privie to our intentions, and
 in whom We trust) will in
 his own time bring to a wished and peacable condition; We are not unmindfull of that duty which

A 2

We

We owe to that Our ancient and native Kingdom, and to the Kirks there, now met together by their Commissioners in a Nationall Assembly, God whole Vicegerent We are, hath made Us a King over divers Kingdoms, and We have no other desire nor Designe but to govern them by their own Laws, and the Kirks in them, by their own Canons and Constitutions; where any thing is found to be amisse, We will endeavour a Reformation in a fair and orderly way, and where a Reformation is settled, We resolve with that Authority wherewith God hath vested Us, to maintain and defend it in Peace and Libertie, against all trouble that can come without, and against all Heresie, Sects, and Schismes, which may arise from within; nor do We desire any thing more in that Kingdom (and when We shall heare of it, it shall be a matter of delight and gladnesse to Us, then that the Gospell be faithfully preached throughout the whole Kingdome to the utmost Shiers and borders thereof, knowing that to be the means of honour to God, of happinesse to the People, and of true obedience to Us; And for this effect, that holy and able men be put in places of the Ministry, and that Schools and Colledges may flourish, in Learning and true Piety; Some things for advancing these ends We did of Our own accord promise in Our Letter to the last Assembly, and We make Your selves Judges who were witnesses to Our Actions while We were there in presence, whether We did not performe there both

(5)
both in the point of presentations which are in our hands, and in the liberall provisions of all the Universities and Colledges of the Kingdom, not onely above that which any of Our Progenitors had done before Us; But also above Your own hopes and expectations: We do not make Commemoration of this Our Beneficence, either to praise Our Selfe, or to stop the influence of Our Royall goodnesse and bountie for afterwards; but that by these reall Demonstrations of Our unfained desire and delight to do good, ye may be the more confident to expect from Us whatsoever in Justice We can grant, or what may be expedient for you to obtain, We have given expresse charge to Our Commissioner to see that all things be done there orderly and peaceably, as if We were present in Our own Person. Not doubting, but in thankfulness for your present estate and condition, yea will abstaine from every thing that may make any new disturbance, and that you will be more wise then to be the Enemies of your own peace, which would but stumble others and ruine your selves: We have also commanded Our Commissioner to receive from you, your just and reasonable desires, for what may further serve for the good of Religion there; That taking them to Our consideration, We may omit nothing which may witnesse Us indeed to be a Nursing Father of that Kirke wherein We were borne and Baptized, and that if you be not happy yee may not blame Us but your selves: And now what

(4)

We owe to that Our ancient and native Kingdom, and to the Kirks there, now met together by their Commissioners in a Nationall Assembly, God whose Vicegerent We are, hath made Us a King over these Kingdoms, and We have no other desire nor Designe but to govern them by their own Laws, and the Kirks in them, by their own Canons and Constitutions; where any thing is found to be amisse, We will endeavour a Reformation in a fair and orderly way, and where a Reformation is settled, We resolve with that Authority wherewith God hath vested Us, to maintain and defend it in Peace and Libertie, against all
trouble that can come without, and against all Heresse, Sects, and Schismes, which may arise from within; nor do We desire any thing more in
that Kingdom (and when We shall heare of it, it shall be a matter of delight and gladnesse to Us, then that the Gospell be faithfully preached
throughout the whole Kingdome to the utmost Shiers
and borders thereof, knowing that to be the means
of honour to God, of happinesse to the People,
and of true obedience to Us; And for this effect,
that holy and able men be put in places of the Ministry, and that Schools and Colledges may flourish in Learning and true Piety; Some things for advancing these ends We did of Our own accord promise in Our Letter to the last Assembly,
and We make Your selves Judges who were witnesses to Our Actions while We were there in
presence, whether We did not performe there
both

(5)
both in the point of presentations which are in our hands, and in the liberall provisions of all the Universities and Colledges of the Kingdom, not onely above that which any of Our Progenitors had done before Us; But also above Your own hopes and expectations: We do not make Commemoration of this Our Beneficence, either to praise Our Selfe, or to stop the influence of Our Royall goodnesse and bountie for afterwards; but that by these reall Demonstrations of Our unfained desire and delight to do good, ye may be the more confident to expect from Us whatsoever in Justice We can grant, or what may be expedient for you to obtain. We have given expresse charge to Our Commissioner to see that all things be done there orderly and peaceably, as if We were present in Our own Person. Not doubting, but in thankfulness for your present estate and condition, yea will abstaine from every thing that may make any new disturbance, and that you will be more wise then to be the Enemies of your own peace, which would but stumble others and ruine your selves: We have also commanded Our Commissioner to receive from you, your just and reasonable desires, for what may further serve for the good of Religion there; That taking them to Our consideration, We may omitt nothing which may witnesse Us indeed to be a Nursing Father of that Kirke wherein We were borne and Baptized, and that if you be not happy yee may not blame Us but your selves: And now
what

(4)

We owe to that Our ancient and native Kingdom, and to the Kirks there, now met together by their Commissioners in a Nationall Assembly, God
whose Vicegerent We are, hath made Us a King
over divers Kingdoms, and We have no other desire nor Designe but to govern them by their own Laws, and the Kirks in them, by their own Canones and Constitutions; where any thing is found to be amisse, We will endeavour a Reformation in a fair and orderly way, and where a Reformation is settled, We resolve with that Authority wherewith God hath vested Us, to maintain and defend it in Peace and Libertie, against all
trouble that can come without, and against all Heresie, Sects, and Schismes, which may arise
from within; nor do We desire any thing more in
that Kingdom (and when We shall heare of it, it shall be a matter of delight and gladnesse to Us, then that the Gospell be faithfully preached throughout the whole Kingd. to the utmost Shiers and borders thereof, knowing that to be the means of honour to God, of happinesse to the People,
and of true obedience to Us; And for this effect,
that holy and able men be put in places of the Ministry, and that Schools and Colledges may flourish in Learning and true Piety; Some things
for advancing these ends We did of Our own accord promise in Our Letter to the last Assembly,
and We make Your selves Judges who were witnesses to Our Actions while We were there in
presence, whether We did not performe there
both

(5)

both in the point of presentations which are in our hands, and in the liberall provisions of all the Universities and Colledges of the Kingdom, not onely above that which any of Our Progenitors had done before Us; But also above Your own hopes and expectations: We do not make Commemoration of this Our Beneficence, either to praise Our Selfe, or to stop the influence of Our Royall goodnesse and bountie for afterwards; but that by these reall Demonstrations of Our unfained desire and delight to do good, ye may be the more confident to expect from Us whatsoever in Justice We can grant, or what may be expedient for you to obtain, We have given expresse charge to Our Commissioner to see that all things be done there orderly and peaceably, as if We were present in Our own Person; Not doubting, but in thankfulness for your present estate and condition, yea will abstaine from every thing that may make any new disturbance, and that you will be more wise then to be the Enemies of your own peace, which would but stumble others and ruine your selves: We have also commanded Our Commissioner to receive from you, your just and reasonable desires, for what may further serve for the good of Religion there; That taking them to Our consideration, We may omitt nothing which may witness Us indeed to be a Nursing Father of that Kirke wherein We were borne and Baptized, and that if you be not happy yee may not blame Us but your selves: And now
what

(4)

We owe to that Our ancient and native Kingdom, and to the Kirks there, now met together by their Commissioners in a Nationall Assembly, God
whose Vicegerent We are, hath made Us a King
over divers Kingdoms, and We have no other defire nor Designe but to govern them by their own Laws, and the Kirks in them, by their own Canones and Constitutions; where any thing is
found to be amisse, We will endeavour a Reformation in a fair and orderly way, and where a Reformation is settled, We resolve with that Authority wherewith God hath vested Us, to maintain and defend it in Peace and Libertie, against all
trouble that can come without, and against all Heresie, Sects, and Schismes, which may arise
from within; nor do We desire any thing more in
that Kingdom (and when We shall heare of it, it shall be a matter of delight and gladnesse to Us, then that the Gospell be faithfully preached
throughout the whole Kingdome to the utmost Shiers
and borders thereof, knowing that to be the means
of honour to God, of happinesse to the People,
and of true obedience to Us; And for this effect,
that holy and able men be put in places of the Ministry, and that Schools and Colledges may flourish in Learning and true Piety; Some things
for advancing these ends We did of Our own accord promise in Our Letter to the last Assembly,
and We make Your selves Judges who were witnesses to Our Actions while We were there in
presence, whether We did not performe there
both

both in the point of presentations which are in our hands, and in the liberall provisions of all the Universities and Colledges of the Kingdom, not onely above that which any of Our Progenitors had done before Us; But also above Your own hopes and expectations: We do not make Commemoration of this Our Beneficence, either to praise Our Selfe, or to stop the influence of Our Royall goodnesse and bountie for afterwards; but that by these reall Demonstrations of Our unfained desire and delight to do good, ye may be the more confident to expect from Us whatsoever in Justice We can grant, or what may be expedient for you to obtain, We have given expresse charge to Our Commissioner to see that all things be done there orderly and peaceably, as if We were present in Our own Person; Not doubting, but in thankfulness for your present estate and condition, yea will abstaine from every thing that may make any new disturbance, and that you will be more wise then to be the Enemies of your own peace, which would but stumble others and ruine your selves: We have also commanded Our Commissioner to receive from you, your just and reasonable desires, for what may further serve for the good of Religion there; That taking them to Our consideration, We may omit nothing which may witness Us indeed to be a Nursing Father of that Kirke wherein We were borne and Baptized, and that if you be not happy yee may not blame Us but your selves: And now
 what

We owe to that Our ancient and native Kingdom,
 and to the Kirks there, now met together by their Commissioners in a Nationall Assembly, God
 whose Vicegerent We are, hath made Us a King
 over divers Kingdoms, and We have no other desire nor Designe but to govern them by their own Laws, and the Kirks in them, by their own Canons and Constitutions; where any thing is found to be amisse, We will endeavour a Reformation in a fair and orderly way, and where a Reformation is settled, We resolve with that Authority wherewith God hath vested Us, to maintain
 and defend it in Peace and Libertie, against all
 trouble that can come without, and against all Heresie, Sects, and Schismes, which may arise
 from within; nor do We desire any thing more in
 that Kingdom (and when We shall heare of it, it shall be a matter of delight and gladnesse to Us, then that the Gospell be faithfully preached throughout the whole Kingdom to the utmost Shiers and borders thereof, knowing that to be the means of honour to God, of happinesse to the People,
 and of true obedience to Us; And for this effect,
 that holy and able men be put in places of the Ministry, and that Schools and Colledges may flourish in Learning and true Piety; Some things
 for advancing these ends We did of Our own accord promise in Our Letter to the last Assembly,
 and We make Your selves Judges who were witnesses to Our Actions while We were there in
 presence, whether We did not performe there
 both

(5)
both in the point of presentations which are in our hands, and in the liberall provisions of all the Universities and Colledges of the Kingdom, not onely above that which any of Our Progenitors had done before Us; But also above Your own hopes and expectations: We do not make Commemoration of this Our Beneficence, either to praise Our Selfe, or to stop the influence of Our Royall goodnesse and bountie for afterwards; but that by these reall Demonstrations of Our unfained desire and delight to do good, ye may be the more confident to expect from Us whatsoever in Justice We can grant, or what may be expedient for you to obtain. We have given expresse charge to Our Commissioner to see that all things be done there orderly and peaceably, as if We were present in Our own Person. Not doubting, but in thankfulness for your present estate and condition, yea will abstaine from every thing that may make any new disturbance, and that you will be more wise then to be the Enemies of your own peace, which would but stumble others and ruine your selves: We have also commanded Our Commissioner to receive from you, your just and reasonable desires, for what may further serve for the good of Religion there; That taking them to Our consideration, We may omit nothing which may witnesse Us indeed to be a Nurfing Father of that Kirke wherein We were borne and Baptized, and that if you be not happy yee may not blame Us but your selves: And now
what

(6)

what do We againe require of you, but that which otherwise you owe Us, as your Sovereigne Lord, and King, even that you pray for Our prosperitie and the peace of Our Kingdoms, that ye use the best means, to keep Our People in obedience to Us and Our Lawes, which doth very much (in Our Personall absence from that Our Kingdom) depend upon your preaching, and your own exemplary loyalty and faithfullnesse, and that against all such Jealousies, Superstition, and sinister Ceremonies, as are too frequent in these times, and have been often falsified in times past by the reality of the contrary events, ye judge of Us by Our Actions, which We trust through God in despite of malice, shall ever go in a constant way, for the good of Religion and the weal of Our people, which is the chiefeest of Our intentions and desires; And thus We bid you farwell.

Given at Our Court at Leicester the 23 of July. 1642.

FINIS.

